Composed & written by Shlomo Sternberg

Vocals: Baruch Sholom Blesofsky & Talmidim of United Lubavitcher Yeshiva

Original tune by Sholom Bruchshat

It started as a story how the Sforim of Lubavitch,
Were stolen from their natural home and true identity,
In contrast to what's seen in any prior courts' decisions,
The judge proclaims that they belong in 770

For:

Hu Bachaim, Didan Notzach,
So Zaro Bachaim, Didan Notzach,
The Rebbe, Chasidim and the Seforim are all one, Didan Notzach

The Rebbe is relieved from a pain so strong,
Chasidim were dancing a whole week long,
Didan Notzach was more than a song,
It proclaims the Rebbe's victory,
With confidence and certainty,
For all of eternity!

Chorus: Hu Bachayaim, Didan Notzach

In truth it is the story of the essence of Lubavitch,
The accusation dared to challenge the eternity,
Of a Rebbe's life, his directives and his teachings,
World and heaven both agreed - proclaimed with clarity

That:

Hu Bachaim, and he's giving us Chayus,
So we are alive and we have the Achrayus,
To learn his Chasidus and devote our heart and soul,
To bring the Geula is our goal

In our day, as the Rebbe we cannot see,
A challenge un-met in our history,
Yet DIDAN NOTZACH, it's as clear as it can be,
The Rebbe and Lubavitch are alive and well, they're here to stay,
Growing strong from day to day!

Chorus: Hu Bachayim, Didan Notzach
